1.2 Two-Player Match Setup

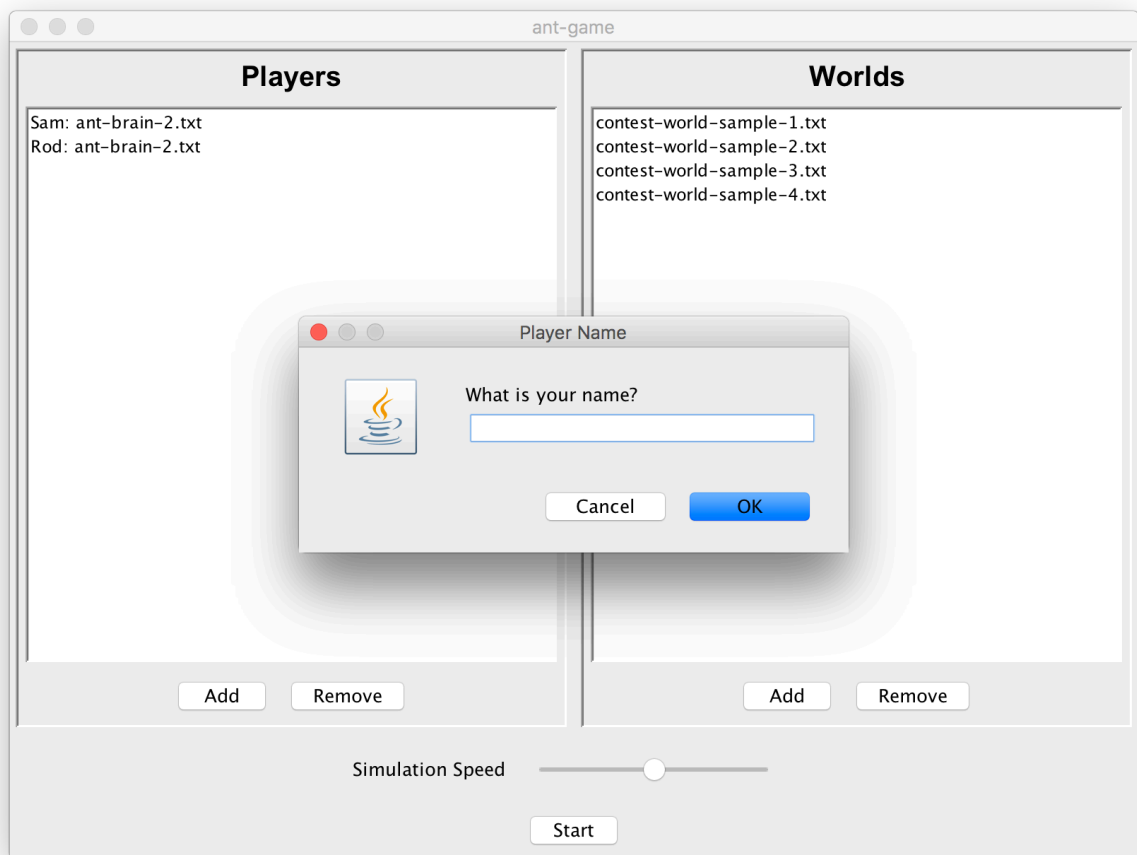

The screenshot shows a window titled "ant-game" with a light gray background. The interface is divided into several sections:

- Red Player Section: Located on the top left, it features the title "Red" in red text. Below it are two buttons: "Set Name" and "Upload Brain".
- Black Player Section: Located on the top right, it features the title "Black" in black text. Below it are two buttons: "Set Name" and "Upload Brain".
- Checklist Section: A central section with the title "Checklist" in bold black text. It contains three status messages: "Name: Sam" (green), "Brain: uploaded!" (green), and "World: uploaded!" (green) on the left; "Name: Rod" (green) and "Brain" (orange) on the right.
- Configuration Section: A section below the checklist with the title "Configuration" in bold black text. It contains a button "Upload Ant-World" and a slider control labeled "Simulation Speed" with a blue knob.
- Start Button: A single button labeled "Start" is located at the bottom center of the window.
